JAMES MCINTYRE

Full-stack Javascript developer with a focus on designing beautiful product experiences by leveraging my experience in the UX/UI disciplines. My passion is design and the psychology behind great design. I love working in teams, energizing people around a vision and inviting challenge.

EXPERIENCE

WEB DEVELOPER
mailparser.io
Paris, France

Developed and implemented a user growth campaign that included a survey sent to the entire user base with the goal to identify key functionality which would be improved for increased conversion going forward. Design, Marketing, Strategy.

PURCHASING COORDINATOR
Roto Group
Columbus, OH

Built-out a new department and company-wide purchasing processes. Built a purchasing control web application which drastically increased efficiency and improved operations across all departments. This app is still used everyday by their entire company.

IT CONSULTANT
Eric Madden Consulting
